

NARBERTH Havurah

August 1, 2017

As the new president of the Narberth Havurah, I'm writing to welcome you to our community and to invite you to join us as a member for the new membership year (July 1, 2017 - June 30, 2018).

Over the past year, the Havurah grew even stronger and more vibrant as a community. In our second year with Rabbi Simcha, we continued to enrich our spiritual practice and discover more ways to celebrate our Jewish life. We enjoyed a year of wonderful holiday celebrations and song-filled Shabbat services. We fed the hungry and demonstrated for social justice. Our Hebrew School reached new heights of academic purpose, organization, and camaraderie among its students, with Rabbi Simcha as teacher. We look forward to expanding both our experience and our community in the coming year.

The Narberth Havurah is first and foremost about the relationships among our members and always will be. We take pleasure in one another's company, and we want you with us during the coming year of joyous engagement. Please join us as a member, and share in the continued vitality of the Narberth Havurah. You can find information about our membership dues and Hebrew school tuition below, as well as on our website. We try to keep these costs as affordable as possible, and we can be flexible when necessary.

Registering online is easy – just visit www.tinyurl.com/NHmembership. Or, fill out the form on pages 7-8 of this packet. And, invite your friends to join us too! We are an inviting, inclusive community; everyone is absolutely welcome.

If you have any questions or concerns, we'd love to speak with you. Just email me (see address below) or call me at 610-667-9216, or contact our Vice President, Membership and Outreach, Andrea Deutsch, at 484-432-0279.

We look forward to celebrating with everyone, starting with our Summer Fun Meet and Greet on August 20th at Narberth Park from 10 am until noon; a chance for members new and old to reconnect, and for others interested in the Havurah to meet us.

We hope to see you there!

Warmest regards,

Helene Speer

NARBERTH Havurah

The Narberth Havurah provides open-hearted Jewish engagement for individuals on their own spiritual path and for families looking for a meaningful Jewish connection.

We are best described by our members:

I am a member of the Narberth Havurah because I wanted to experience Judaism on a more personal and spiritual level.

I am a member of the Narberth Havurah because we finally have found a place where OUR entire family can comfortably learn about our faith and experience it first-hand.

We truly feel like we have found a home at the Narberth Havurah.

We are a community of seekers, learners, joyous celebrants and participants in contemporary Judaism. We offer two Shabbat gatherings each month in addition to holiday celebrations and opportunities for children and adults to engage in meaningful Jewish learning. We want to touch and feel grass-roots expressions of Judaism and the Jewish calendar. We are an open and welcoming congregation composed of a diverse group of families and individuals. We are small in numbers and mighty in purpose.

We are led by Rabbi Simcha Zevit, who joined us in 2015. Rabbi Simcha brings many years of experience as a Jewish educator, working with adults, teens, and children in a variety of settings. She is a ritual-maker and facilitator for traditional and creative life-cycle celebrations and transitions, an inspiring prayer and chant leader, and, in addition to her teaching, community building, and life cycle work, she has spent the last several years serving as a chaplain to people of all faiths in hospital and hospice settings. She is currently a staff chaplain at the Hospital of the University of Pennsylvania, in addition to being our rabbi. She embraces people of all backgrounds, belief, and disbelief, encouraging them to learn, and to experiment in how to create meaningful, personally relevant, and joyful Jewish lives, while balancing their unique needs and understandings with those of the community, and with our age old tradition.

Our goal is to be a smart community, responsive to our members' needs and responsible for doing good work in the world. If tikkun olam (healing the world), engaging dialog, exploring tradition, and lasting relationships within a caring community deepen your connection to Judaism, then the Narberth Havurah will have succeeded.

MEMBERSHIP COMMITMENT

There are two parts of your Havurah membership:

Involvement: This Havurah is YOURS, and it needs you. As a living, growing organization there are plenty of opportunities to contribute your skills, or even learn new ones, on behalf of the greater community. We are small enough that we cannot rely on someone else to do the work. Because of that, each person's contributions matter. This is one way we strengthen our community.

Dues + Contributions: We rely solely on member contributions to sustain operations and to provide our community with the practice of Judaism that members have all come to know, love and cherish. But, please do not assume that because we are a small, intimate community that we do not need funds. Simply put: it takes money to sustainably run the Havurah for this year and for years to come.

The Narberth Havurah Hebrew School

Mission and Vision

Our Hebrew School is taught by our own Rabbi Simcha Zevit, and Havurah member Pauline Rosenberg, a Jewish educator with years of experience. The goal of the Narberth Havurah Hebrew School is to engage students as active learners as they encounter Jewish texts, rituals, values, and history. With small class sizes and differentiated instruction, each student will be treated as an individual with specific goals and needs. Time will be divided between learning Hebrew and Prayer, Torah and Jewish story/history, and contemporary Jewish rituals and holidays. Tikkun Olam (repairing the world) and our Jewish values will be woven in throughout the curriculum. We believe that a fun and meaningful learning environment for children is the best way to engage them as they begin their life-long journey of Jewish learning.

In addition to traditional classroom instruction and discussion, learning modalities will include music, art, drama, and games, and students will often be working on projects and skills that can be incorporated into Jewish practice in their homes and the larger Havurah community. We will have several Hebrew School Friday night services in which our students will lead us in prayer and song, and students will have the chance to share their learning when the community gathers for holiday celebrations. Our vision is to empower our students to become participating members in the Jewish life of their families, the Narberth Havurah, and the larger community.

Class Offerings

The Narberth Havurah Hebrew School is currently forming classes for children in grades 2-6. If you have children in kindergarten or first grade, and are interested in a class or programming for your children, please let us know by emailing Rabbi Simcha at rabbisimchazevit@gmail.com. The precise number and composition of our classes will be based upon enrollment. They will meet on Tuesday afternoons in the Parish Hall at St. John's Episcopal Church, 404 Levering Mill Road, Bala Cynwyd, PA 19004. Our school will be in session from September 12, 2017 to May 22, 2018. A detailed calendar and schedule will be provided in September.

In addition to spending about half of each session learning Hebrew, our theme for educational focus this year is “It’s a Mitzvah”! The mitzvot that guide Jewish life cover just about everything: ways that we treat one another to create a kind and caring community and world, how we care for animals and the environment, and how we nurture our spiritual lives through ritual, learning, and prayer. Our students are taught that there is no “right way” to live as a Jew, and will be offered multiple perspectives to think about the ideas discussed. Most importantly, they’ll learn that they are part of a community in which asking good questions is valued, the diversity among us is honored, and that there are many beautiful ways to bring Judaism into their lives. Much of what we learn we will learn by doing: we’ll make cards for those who are sick, find ways to help the elderly and feed the hungry, learn important ideas about relationships such as honoring our parents and refraining from gossip, and we’ll create ritual objects such as Shabbat candlesticks, mezuzot, and more.

Tuition for members of the Narberth Havurah Hebrew School is as follows (per student):

One student:	$795
Two students:	$745
Three or more:	$695

Space permitting, non-members of the Narberth Havurah may enroll for a one-year trial, albeit at a higher fee. After the trial period, a Havurah membership will be required in order to continue enrollment in the Narberth Havurah Hebrew School.
